REPRESENTATIVE.
CENTENNIAL.

The Centennial Exhibition has done good; it has furnished to the public a standard of excellence in every branch of industry, and it has caused them to demand excellence in what they buy.

With the growth of education and thorough domestic habits, good goods will always have a preference, and intelligent buyers will always give their patronage to merchants of established reputation.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1876.

Greenbacks at the New York Gold Exchange yesterday closed at 91.

The case of ALEXANDER SULLIVAN, on trial for the murder of FRANCIS HANFORD, was given to the jury yesterday afternoon. At a late hour in the evening there were no indications of agreement upon a verdict.

Sensor BLAINE was in the city yesterday, on his way to Peoria, where he speaks this afternoon. Saturday night will find the exposition building crowded again on the occasion of Mr. BLAINE's first appearance before a Chicago audience.

The announcement is contained in a Washington dispatch that ELMER WASHBURN, Chief of the Treasury Secret Service, has been requested to resign. Secretary MORRILL will not find it easy to completely fill the place that WASHBURN is to vacate. There are plenty of men who can "ratio" around in it," but few who can fill it like him.

The Spanish Government has decided the long-pending question of religious toleration by a rule which practically prohibits Protestant schools, and restricts to the smallest limit the privilege of worship in any save the Roman Catholic faith. Non-conformist services or exercises of every character may only be held in the interior of chapels or cemeteries, and it is required that all schoolmasters shall be Spaniards holding regular academic degrees conferred by Catholic institutions.

Latest advice from Constantinople indicates that the Russian ambassador has not yet succeeded in convincing the Porte that the interests of the Ottoman Empire lie in its concession to all of Russia's demands. It is now asserted that Russia will insist upon a meeting of all the guaranteeing Powers, from which Turkey shall be excluded, the principal object of which meeting shall be a revision of the diplomatic dictionary, or, in other words, to decide upon the exact meaning of the words "autonomy" and "guarantee."

In the trial of CORN, ex-Cashier of the JACQUES GARNET BANK, now in progress at Montreal, the evidence develops an astonishing condition of things. It is shown that the accounts of the Bank have been falsified and the returns to the Government misrepresented to the amount of $2,731,992. This enormous fraud was rendered easy of perpetration by the peculiar circumstances of the case. ROMAINE TAMBURAT, President of the Bank, is a man 70 years old and so blind that he could just manage to sign his name, but could not see to read a line or a figure in the statements and accounts rendered to him by the Cashier. The latter enjoyed the entire confidence of the sightless old President, who signed whatever was brought to him. It is no great wonder that there was a "discrepancy" of nearly three millions.

HOXIE, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First District, under the skillful manipulation of the interviewer comes out strong as an eccentric statesman and vigorous conversationalist. His talk bristles with points—principally dabbles which take the place of vowels that may be omitted without spoiling the sense. He is, according to his own estimate of the case, a creature of destiny, a man upon whom greatness has been thrust by a vast multitude who clamor for "a change." Evil-minded persons have asserted that it is the thieves, ballot-box stuffers, and repeaters who demand Reform embodied in HOXIE, but HOXIE swears he knows them not; never heard of the Hatch House gang; is not aware of the existence of MIKE CORCORAN, HUGH GARNET, TRUDE, JOHNTY CRAWFORD, TOM FOLEY, DALE THOMPSON, etc.; that it is the business men on the avenues who have fairly dragged him forth from the simous alleys of the Stock-Yards to manage affairs of State at Washington. All this, and much more, has HOXIE blushingly impeded through our columns to-day.

The Chicago produce markets were more active yesterday, and steeper till near the end of the session, when they were excited by additional war news. Mess pork closed 10@10c per lb higher, at $16.00 for October and $15.62 for the year. Lamb closed 7c per lb the higher, at $9.82 for new, and $9.50@9.52 for the year. Meals were 4c per lb higher, at 6c for new shoulders, 8c for short ribs, and 8c for do short loins. Lake freights were quiet and firm, at 5c for wheat to Buffalo.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1876.

Highbrow were steady, at $1.10 per gallon. Flour was dull and steady. Wheat closed 4c higher, at $1.11c cash and $1.12c for November. Corn closed firm, at 43c cash and 43c for seller November. Oats closed firmer, at 32c cash and 32c for November. Rye was steady, at 6c. Barley closed easier, at 80c cash or seller November. Hogs were active, and closed stronger for packing grades. Sales were principally at 35.75@36.00. Cattle were unchanged. Sheep were firm. Last Saturday evening there was in store in this city 2,450,470 bu wheat, 2,007,075 bu corn, 649,523 bu oats, 177,510 bu rye, and 930,480 bu barley. Total, 6,108,358 bu. One hundred dollars in gold would buy $109.75 in greenbacks at the close.

TILDEN on a hard-money platform, not at all. Lieut.-Gov. DODDSEY, the principal representative of TILDEN in the Convention, after having heard EWING and VANDERBILT, immediately declared that TILDEN would make no concessions from his hard-money standard, and thus presented the issue to the Convention:

I propose here to make a straight issue between

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Rather a Quiet Day Among the Banks.

New York Exchange Flat—Currency Orders Small.

The Produce Markets Generally Firm, with More Doing.

Provisions Steadily—Breadstuffs Edged After Hasty War News, Which Was Busted Later.

A Further Large Increase in Our Stocks of Grain in Store.

FINANCIAL.

The day was not an especially active one. The orders from the country for currency continued to come in, and the market was quiet.

The loan market is perhaps not quite as active as it would be, but there has been enough improvement in the offerings for paper to make up all the cheap funds. The country is still an easy market, and the commercial paper is in regular demand.

Commercial and miscellaneous paper is fair supply.

Discount lines are well sustained, but, although deposits are comparatively low, there is still plenty of fungible funds for legitimate borrowing.

Interest on the commercial paper, with the exception of a few cents and upwards.

New York exchange was sold between banks at 750-800 per $1,000 discount.

The clearing was $3,000,000.

THE SILVER COMMISSION.

The general condition of the market is fairly satisfactory, and there is no disposition to strict action to this class of stocks. It is more difficult to sell than to buy.

There are a few more sales, but the market is not as active as it was a week ago.

The Assistant Treasurer disposed of $15,000.

Customs exports, $850,000.

Produce exports for the week, $3,078,000.

Bonding sterilized active day, $265, eight.

Corporation, $1,112,000.

Corporation, $115,000.

THE CITY.

GENERAL NEWS.

A specimen number of the Chicago Societe has been issued. It is moderate in its tone, and neat in its appearance.

The Auxiliary Board of the Central Homeopathic Free Dispensary will meet at the Palmer House to-day at 3 p.m.

The lady managers of the Newboy's Home will serve lunches for the benefit of that institution at the Home from 12 to 9 o'clock, on Saturday. Price 25 cents.

Mr. Billings, of the West Side Gas Company, said to a reporter yesterday that he did not know what he would do about the action of the Council reducing the price to $1.50 per 1,000 feet.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Manesse, Optician, 88 Madison street (Tribune office), was 50°; 52° at 4 p.m. and 49° at 8 p.m. at 8 a.m. and 58° at 8 p.m.

The Coroner yesterday held an inquest upon Arthur Waters, a lad 15 years of age, residing at the corner of Harrison and Dearborn streets, who had been found dead in his house. The jury returned a verdict of death from heart disease.

Mrs. E. G. Cook, M.D., delivered an interesting lecture yesterday afternoon at the First Congregational Church on a large subject, composed of the history of the "Influence of Physical Culture." The lecture was full of practical suggestions of great value.

The Hannibal Zouaves will meet this evening at their hall, 115 W. Madison street, for the transaction of important business. As they are not State militia, they desire to be understood that an item published about a fortnight ago, to the effect that they were to be disbanded, was erroneous. The Zouaves are organizing a political marching club, is erroneous. They are an independent body at present, and in no way violating the law governing such bodies.

A painful accident happened early Monday evening to the American Bridge Company's Red Head, at the corner of Harrison and Dearborn streets. Barney McWayne, 66 years of age, residing near the corner of Dearborn and Harrison streets, was at the time of his accident on his way to a friend's house for the purpose of inviting him to the funeral of his wife, who had died on the previous day, was caught in the iron trap set by two Zouaves, who were literally to pieces when he was found, but McWayne, being rather deaf, and blind in one eye, failed to register the alarm. The Coroner will be called to inspect yesterday, and returned a verdict of accidental death.

The Alumni Association of Chicago Theological Seminary has annual meetings, lasting two or three days, for the purpose of keeping up acquaintance and the discharge of heating addresses, by members and invited speakers.

Yesterday occurred the first session of these meetings for this year. The attendance was good, the meetings were held at the Seminary Chapel, at the corner of Ashland and Wabash avenues. There was a devotional meeting at 9:30 a.m., followed by a discussion on "Lay Preachers," and the opening of the session by Dr. B. M. F. Jenkins, of the First Congregational Church.

The office is occupied by Dr. T. E. Emery, dealer in patent gas-luminaires.

Sunday evening a woman, said to be named Mrs. C. W. Dryer, whom Emery had known for several years, came to him and pleaded for shelter, alleging that she was too sick to work, and had no place to go.

Emery generously granted the request, and the woman, after a few days' residence, was unmercifully beaten by her husband, and was compelled to leave the house. Last evening Emery wrote to Dr. Abbott, asking him to intercede with Mrs. Dryer to procure her a place to go.

A rather mysterious death occurred yesterday morning in Room 6 Kentucky Block, No. 190 Clark street, but as the police have been unable to learn any particular aspect of the case, it is safe to conclude that the death was not so mysterious as it may be made to appear from a recital of the attending incidents. The office is occupied by Dr. T. E. Emery, dealer in patent gas-luminaires.

The sister of the deceased was notified, and took charge of the remains yesterday afternoon. She stated that her sister had been ill for years past, and recently had been so seriously ill as to cause expectations of her death.

The annual sale of unclaimed freight carried by the United States by William A. Butters was held yesterday morning by William A. Butters at 115 W. Madison street. The attendance was pretty good, and the bidding fairly excited. About 400 lots were offered, and, as is usual in such sales, the buyers of the articles purchased at a high price, a good proportion of the bidders were themselves sold. Prices ranged from 25 cents up to $20, according to the appearance and bulk of the articles. The articles were mostly of the articles which were delivered the purchasers did not allow a laudable readiness to display their bargains, but most of them put their boxes to the wall, and the buyers had to wade through the mass of packages to find the articles. Some relatives apportioned what the deceased had left to them, and they could have it all to themselves. Among the purchases opened on the day, a pair of men's gloves, which were offered at $10 or $12 apiece, it was for $20. Another purchaser procured for a dollar a small box which proved to have it in a glazier's diamond and several other articles.

The sale of the packages of jewelry, which did not appear to be of that character, which laughs at acids and tests. Taken as a whole, the sale was not on a par with its predecessor, however, if anything, rather fewer things than the average.

AMERICAN. The sale of stocks for the forthcoming Italian opera will commence at the box-office, McVicker's Theatre to-morrow morning. The repertoire for the week has not yet been announced, but for the opening night "Norma" is to be given. It is to be an open-air performance, and the troupe is a large one, and is to be in full costume. The Italian season for a long time past in this city, and as "Norma" has not been given here for many years in its native dress, it ought to be a success.
